

BNP Paribas in Luxembourg supports employee volunteers

Thanks to its Help2Help initiative, in 2021 the Group provided EUR 47,136 in support to 17 charitable projects

“Help2Help” is a cooperative programme through which the BNP Paribas Group in Luxembourg supports active and retired employees who volunteer their time to public interest projects. For its 12th edition, the Group provided EUR 47,136 in support to 17 charitable projects. The local and international initiatives provide assistance in a range of areas, such as education, healthcare, the environment and humanitarian aid.

This year, a EUR 2,500 prize (the “Prix Coup de Cœur”) was awarded to the Onco Gest association, which has developed an innovative, ecological and socially-minded concept by collecting and recycling products and accessories for use by cancer patients. The association is based in Lorraine and partners with a variety of associations in Luxembourg. It helps update play areas and waiting rooms in hospitals with recycled products and materials, and offers patients hair prostheses without advance payment.

Today, the Help2Help initiative provides support in around 30 countries where the BNP Paribas Group operates, and every year close to EUR 1 million is allocated to charitable projects around the world.

Béatrice Belorgey, Chair of the BGL BNP Paribas Executive Committee and Head of the BNP Paribas Group in Luxembourg, made the following comments: “Social inclusion and solidarity are core values at our bank and at the Group. It’s very encouraging to see that employee engagement hasn’t wavered – it’s actually increased – despite the challenging circumstances brought about by the health crisis in recent months.”
