

BGL BNP PARIBAS

Rules for the “Priority, win passes for the Roland Garros tournament” competition

Article 1: Name

BGL BNP Paribas, 50 avenue J.F. Kennedy, L-2951 Luxembourg, is organising a promotional competition called “Priority, win passes for the Roland Garros tournament”.

Article 2: Duration

The promotional competition “Priority, win passes for the Roland Garros tournament” is organised from 30 March 2015 to 30 April 2015.

Article 3: Participation in the game

The simple fact of participating in this promotional competition implies acceptance of these rules. Any person aged over 18 years who subscribes to this competition via the Marketing page between 30 March and 30 April 2015 automatically participates in the competition.

Article 4: Modification

BGL BNP Paribas reserves the possibility at any time, without prior notice, to prolong, suspend or interrupt the promotional competition referred to in Article 1. It may not be held liable in this respect by the participant or any other person.

Article 5: Liability

If the promotional competition is cancelled by BGL BNP Paribas, the latter may not under any circumstances be held liable for the consequences resulting from this decision. Furthermore BGL BNP Paribas may not be held liable in the event of technical problems of any kind.

Article 6: Principle of the game

The promotional competition “Priority, win passes for the Roland Garros tournament” is proposed on a one-off basis and its aim is the drawing of lots for the prizes mentioned in Article 7. BGL BNP Paribas undertakes not to publish the winners’ names without their prior written consent and it respects the right of image, undertaking not to publish photos without the prior written consent of the winner.

Article 7: Prizes

The promotional competition “Priority, win passes for the Roland Garros tournament” involves the distribution by drawing lots of 14 passes for the Roland Garros Tennis tournament for the day of the 24 May 2015.

The prize may not, under any circumstances, be replaced or exchanged for cash.

Article 8: Assignment of prizes

The winners will be selected by drawing lots on 30 April 2015 and informed personally by BGL BNP Paribas of the win. No message will be sent to the losers.

Article 9: Communications

These rules will be available via the Marketing page of the Web Banking website of BGL BNP Paribas. Any communication relating to this promotional competition must be sent by registered mail to the following address:

BGL BNP Paribas S.A.

Service Communication
50, avenue J.F. Kennedy
L-2951 Luxembourg

Article 10: Personal data

The participants' personal details are used in accordance with the amended law of 2 August 2002 for managing participations and assignment of winnings.

The collection and processing of personal data relating to the participants at the time of entry in the promotional competition are necessary for the management and aim of the competition in accordance with the terms of these rules.

Each participant has a right of access to the information concerning him, and also a right of rectification of this information which he may exercise by post to the address given in Article 9.

Article 11: Legal competence and applicable law

The relations between BGL BNP Paribas and the participants in the promotional competition are subject to Luxembourg law.

The courts of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg alone will be competent with regard to any dispute relating to the promotional competition proposed. However, the Bank may refer the dispute to any other jurisdiction which, if the above jurisdiction is not elected, would normally be competent with respect to the participant.