The lucky winners of the draw organized by BGL BNP Paribas to celebrate “Vëlofueren am Miselerland” Day (bicycle riding in Miselerland) on May 29 received their prizes at a ceremony on July 18.

BGL BNP Paribas branches in Wasserbillig, Grevenmacher, Remich and Mondorf joined forces to support the event, which centred on bicycle rallies. They were on hand with a stand at Ehnen, where visitors were invited to enter a draw. The Remich branch also set up a refreshment stand for participants in Remich.

At the awards reception, Marc Brimaire, BGL BNP Paribas Regional Director for eastern Luxembourg, congratulated the four winners, whose prizes were shopping vouchers. He went on to note that the “Vëlofueren am Miselerland” initiative was in perfect keeping with the bank's commitment to sustainability and the reduction of carbon footprints.

Ms Mondloch of the Entente Touristique de la Moselle as well as the directors of the participating branches also attended the reception.
