BGL BNP Paribas celebrates Germany's national holiday with pretzels for German commuters

To celebrate Germany's national holiday, BGL BNP Paribas will be handing out pretzels to German cross-border commuters. The event will take place from 6.00 to 8.30 am at Luxembourg station and from 6.30 to 9.00 am at the Wasserbillig P+R car park on Wednesday 3 October 2012.

With this initiative, BGL BNP Paribas is reasserting its role as the partner bank for border dwellers and sending a friendly message to German cross-border commuters.

Along with this year's give-away, the bank organizes a prize competition on www.frontaliers-saviezvous.lu, from 3 to 10 October 2012, with the possibility to win a gourmet meal in a top Luxembourg restaurant.

BGL BNP Paribas offers a comprehensive package of financial solutions to help cross-border commuters manage their accounts effectively, save on taxes, and invest successfully.
