

PRESS RELEASE
BGL BNP Paribas reinforces its commitment to NGOs and community associations
Implementation of CSR assistance programmes

In addition to the commercial services and socially responsible investment products offered by the bank, BGL BNP Paribas has implemented "CSR" (Corporate Social Responsibility) assistance programmes targeted at NGOs and community associations. These programmes offer assistance in the areas of project management, logistics, human resources, IT equipment, etc.

The bank recently launched a skills-lending programme that brings together the skills offered by the employees of the BNP Paribas Group in Luxembourg with the requirements of NGOs and community associations.

Furthermore, within the framework of the regular upgrading of the bank's IT resources, 400 computers are donated to NGOs and community associations in 2012.

The bank's premises are also made available to NGOs and community associations for general meetings, conferences or exhibitions.

NGOs and community associations can benefit from these assistance programmes by filling in the form available on the BGL BNP Paribas public Internet site.

These assistance programmes fall within an integrated service offering specifically targeted at NGOs and community associations in order to enable them to access, with a click of a button, the entire range of financial and non-financial services dedicated to them, thus reinforcing the bank's commitment in terms of social and community responsibility.
