

PRESS RELEASE

BGL BNP Paribas supports European Neighbours' Day and offers Neighbours' Coffee in its branches

On Friday 1 June 2012, BGL BNP Paribas branch offices are inviting clients and neighbours to stop in for coffee from 8.00 a.m. on. The programme is part of the festivities for European Neighbours' Day which is celebrated in more than 35 countries and of which BGL BNP Paribas is the official sponsor in Luxembourg.

Given the success of the second edition of the Neighbours' Coffee in 2011, the bank decided to again take an active part in this year's initiative. The Coffee gives clients and neighbours an opportunity to meet branch staff and chat over coffee and croissants in a relaxed atmosphere. In addition to beverages and pastries, visitors will receive a cup decorated with the bank's colours.

The event reflects values essential to any banker: an ability to listen, a local presence and links with the community. Coffee with the Neighbours is just one of the many activities through which BGL BNP Paribas plays an active role in social life in Luxembourg.

Neighbours' Day is also celebrated at BNP Paribas group level. A total of more than 2000 branches in the Group's four domestic markets (France, Italy, Belgium and Luxembourg) will be taking part.
