On 19 November 2015, BGL BNP Paribas held the grand opening for its new Weiswampach branch, located at 33 Gruuss-Strooss. With the opening of this new branch, which is taking over the business and teams of the Troisvierges branch, the bank will be closer to commercial areas and more in tune with the needs of individual and business clients.

Based on an innovative concept that BGL BNP Paribas is rolling out throughout its network, the Weiswampach branch places the emphasis on client welcome, while offering the best of both face-to-face contact and online services using the latest technologies, such as free WIFI, iPads, videoconferencing, and more.

The interior is designed to encourage interaction with clients. Advisors go to meet clients to guide them around the branch and advise them according to their needs. A discreet self-banking space is available, with ATMs that let clients make deposits and withdrawals 24/7. Thus, clients have access to the same services as in a traditional branch while benefitting from enhanced advice.

Branch director Eric Els and his employees will welcome clients and visitors from Tuesday to Friday, 9:00am to 12:00pm and 1:30pm to 4:30pm, and on Saturdays from 9:00am to 12:00pm. In addition, clients may arrange a meeting with branch staff from Tuesday to Friday, 8:30am to 5:30pm. A special offer is available to new clients.

This new branch represents a significant investment in the future, and in client relations. BGL BNP Paribas has a nationwide presence, with 41 branches and roughly 100 ATMs, and offers local banking to current and prospective clients.
