

EMPLOYEES OF BNP PARIBAS GROUP IN LUXEMBOURG SUPPORT FONDATION CANCER

Presentation of a EUR 4,620 cheque

On Thursday 14 April 2016, Carlo Thill, Country Head of BNP Paribas and Chairman of the Management Board of BGL BNP Paribas, and Marc Lenert, member of the management board of BGL BNP Paribas and Chairman of the Bank's sports and recreation association, "Cercle Amical et Sportif" (CAS), presented a cheque for EUR 4,620 to Lucienne Thommes, Chair of Fondation Cancer.

The presentation follows the participation of some 90 employees of the BNP Paribas Group in Luxembourg in the 11th "Relais pour la Vie" relay race, held on 19 and 20 March this year, as well as the sale of CAS promotional items and home-made cakes that employees were able to buy at a number of in-house events. The donation will fund Fondation Cancer's initiatives and activities in the fields of information, patient assistance and research.

Fondation Cancer works to raise awareness of the prevention and control of cancer and to foster a broad range of initiatives, scientific research projects and information campaigns. The foundation's remit is to reduce the number of cancer cases and deaths and to help sufferers by enhancing their quality of life.

Presenting the cheque, Marc Lenert thanked the employees of the Group in Luxembourg who rallied round to contribute to the donation: "I would like to warmly thank the employees of the BNP Paribas Group in Luxembourg who contributed to this donation, notably by running for a good cause. Through their motivation and enthusiasm, we have once again been able to participate actively in the country's social life. This initiative also reflects our ongoing commitment as part of the bank's corporate social responsibility policy."

About Fondation Cancer

Fondation Cancer, founded in 1994, works with cancer patients and their friends and family. To fulfil its remit, the foundation organises numerous activities in three main areas: awareness raising, assistance for patients, and support for research.

Fondation Cancer regularly informs the public about cancer and living with the disease. Its aim is to dispel the climate of fear and provide useful information on cancer prevention and testing. Proposing psycho-social consultations and psychotherapeutic care where needed, Fondation Cancer offers invaluable assistance to patients and their families.

The foundation also uses the funds contributed by donors to support research projects. A full 93 per cent of Fondation Cancer's resources come from the private sector, with just seven per cent received under an agreement with the Health Ministry. All the foundation's services are free of charge. Its publications can be subscribed to on request and most of its brochures are downloadable from www.cancer.lu.

Fondation Cancer is a public-interest establishment with a board of directors composed of six volunteer members and a team of 12 employees who work daily to improve the quality of life of cancer patients. They are accompanied by nearly 150 volunteers who help with administrative work, patient support at hospitals and the organisation of major events such as “Relais pour la Vie”.
