DISCOVER BGL BNP PARIBAS

Founded in 1919, BGL BNP Paribas plays a leading role in its home market and is now extending its reach to the Greater Region, incorporating the areas bordering Luxembourg. It has actively contributed to the emergence of Luxembourg as an international financial centre. With operations in Retail Banking, Wealth Management and Corporate & Investment Banking, BGL BNP Paribas offers a particularly wide range of products and services to its individual and professional customers, as well as to companies and institutional investors. In Luxembourg, BGL BNP Paribas is ranked number one for professional and small business customers, and number two for individual customers. It is also the undisputed leader in bancassurance.

As the largest banking employer in the country, BGL BNP Paribas is deeply committed to corporate sponsorship, including support for sporting and cultural events as well as sustainable development projects. It is also the first major local bank to have been awarded the Socially Responsible Company label created by the National Institute for Sustainability and Corporate Social Responsibility (INDR). This label is a clear demonstration of the on-going commitment by the bank and its employees to pursuing social, environmental and cultural activities.
