

Are you involved in a volunteer association?

BGL BNP Paribas is a longstanding partner of associations* and NGOs and proud to support them with special benefits in addition to traditional banking services:

- a special Association Savings Account with an attractive interest rate that rises as you increase the funds in your account,
- free remote banking services with Web Banking and MultiLine,
- use of our facilities at no cost and on request (subject to availability) for annual general meetings and other association events.

NGOs get an added boost:

- waiver of banking fees for current and savings accounts (periodic and other bank statements, electronic transfers),
- payment of a NGO bonus, equal to 10% of total annual interest, to all NGO savings accounts,
- no entry fee for BNP Paribas investment funds.

To benefit, call in at a branch office or ring us on (+352) 42 42-2000.

Choosing BGL BNP Paribas means opting for a network of 40 branches covering your local area in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

We offer banking and insurance products designed with associations in mind. Simple and effective, they lighten paperwork so that you can devote all your energy to your group's real work.

* Associations qualifying as non-profit under Luxembourg law ("asbl").

 NGOs including organisations authorised to receive tax-deductible contributions in Luxembourg as well as non-governmental development agencies recognized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and authorised in this capacity to receive tax-deductible contributions up to the maximum and under the conditions defined by articles 109 and 112 L.I.R. of Luxembourg income-tax law. http://www.impotsdirects.public.lu/az/l/libera_dons/index.html
